Oil Project Awaits Go Ahead

1963 BUICK

A LONGER, LOWER SILHOUETTE is featured in the 1963 Buick. Longer overall by one-and-a-half inches, the new regular-size Buick is available in 16 models in four distinct series—LeSabre, Invicta, Wildcat and Electra 225. LeSabre two-door hardtop is shown here. The Wildcat series has been expanded to include a four-door hardtop and convertible. All the regular-size Buicks feature vertically designed tail lamps, a wider horizontal grille and heavier, wider-looking bumpers.

$124,000,000 ATHABASCA RIVER OPERATION TO BE SET IN MOTION

Donald J. Wilkins, president of Great Canadian Oil Sands Limited, is confident that the Alberta government will approve the recommendation made by the oil and gas conservation board regarding the development of the Athabasca Oil Sands, in the immediate future.

Great Canadian, a firm in which Canadian Pacific Oil and Gas Company has an option for 51 percent interest, claimed it has an economical and practical method to extract the oil.

The board's approval of the scheme indicated to some members of the industry that conservation authorities are recognizing that known petroleum reserves in the Western world are running out.

Great Canadian plans a $124,000,000 operation on the banks of the Athabasca River 280 miles northeast of Edmonton. Under the permit the company could extract 11,500,000 barrels a year from the sands.

It has been estimated the sands contain the world's largest known petroleum reserve—about 300,000,000,000 barrels. Authorities estimate this is ample to fill Canada's needs for 800 years at the current rate of consumption.

Great Canadian, which has offices at Toronto and New York, has until September 30, 1963 to arrange financing and until Jan. 1, 1964, to start construction. Unless the company applies for a delay, the plant would be in operation by Sept. 30, 1966.

The Company's plan calls for construction of a 290-mile pipeline to connect with the inter-provincial pipeline system.

The Athabasca oil sands present a problem in extraction. Unlike conventional oil fields (where oil is pumped to the surface or flows under natural pressure, Athabasca's oil is in the form of tiny drops, each surrounding a grain of sand.

One theory concerning the origin of the oil contends it migrated over many millions of years from limestone reservoirs to its present location. Other scientists believe the oil was formed on the site by prehistoric, marine-like creatures which over eons of time sank to the bottom of the huge inland sea.

The company's method of separating oil from the sand was developed by Dr. K. A. Clark of the Alberta Research Council. Known as the water flotation process, it was found technically sound in 1949 at a small plant built by the Alberta government and a private company.

The sand is first mixed with water and heated. The resulting pulp is then flooded with more hot water, causing the oil to rise to the surface as a froth.

Great Canadian's plant would be designed to handle 31,500 barrels a day.

Alice Sorochan's Ceylon Holiday Ends Abruptly

The Canadian High Commissioner in Ceylon has been asked to do everything possible to help the two Canadian school teachers. Alice Sorochan of Lac la Biche and Sarah De Vloo from Bow River. These girls were asked to leave the country of Ceylon where they were on a vacation trip. There were no accusations against Miss Sorochan but it was reported that both Canadians were asked to leave within a week.

Miss De Vloo was charged with working without a permit, thus violating a condition of her stay in that country. However, Miss De Vloo stated that the real reason for her dismissal was her refusal of amorous advances made by government officials.

Miss Sorochan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sorochan of Lac la Biche and has four brothers and two sisters at home.

Ladies' Legion Auxiliary Sponsors Talent Search

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Lac la Biche Canadian Legion are again sponsoring Search for Talent, Mrs. Jack Williams, show convener for the Ladies Auxiliary announced today. The show will be held at the Lac La Biche Memorial Hall on Saturday, October 27, commencing at 7:30 p.m.

Jim Hamar is the registrar and contestants are urged to register early at Hamar's Store. Early registration is imperative this year, Mrs. Williams stated, because the new program provides for competitions with entries accepted on a first come first serve basis.

Auditioning will take place at the hall at three o'clock on the day of the show, and all entrants are urged to be present as only those auditioned will be included in the progarm.

Search for Talent is now in its sixteenth year under the joint sponsorship of the Associated Canadian Travellers and Radio Station CFRN. Proceeds from the show go to the A.C.T. Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund which provides financial assistance for needy crippled children in the area.

This is a non-overlapping service in form of direct payments for medical, surgical and hospital care. More than 1500 unfortunates have been assisted in this manner in the past fifteen years and more than half a million dollars have been raised by the Travellers for this work. More than half this amount has been raised through the Search for Talent Shows.

Several major changes have been made in the Talent presentation this year. Contestants now compete in four divisions. The Sunwapta Scholarship at the Banff School of Fine Arts. The Showmanship Competition will feature group performers and the Country and Western Competition will provide artists in that field of entertainment. Fourth Division is the Junior Competition for youngsters between the ages of eight and twelve, inclusive.

Spotlight Parade has been discontinued as such, and in its place guest performers will be interspersed between competitions. In this manner the evening's entertainment will be well balanced program instead of two separate performances as in the past.

Jack Benbow, stage director at CFRN-T.V. is producer for the fourth consecutive year and Tony Biamonte of CFRN-Radio will be master of ceremonies. Members of the Associated Canadian Travellers and their wives and friends will attend to show details prior to and during the evening's performance.

Lac la Biche Film Draws Large Crowd

The National Film Board showed a thirty minute feature at the Aurora Theatre each evening last week which was of special interest to folks in this area. It was a showing of the Film "Alexie Ladouceur" shot in the Lac la Biche area. Several Lac la Biche people took part in it. The film drew large crowds each evening although it was not advertised in advance.

Taking part in the movie were Rod Cherkus as the 'Doctor', Alexie Ladouceur, Emile Bourque, Bertha Boucher and the Ladouceur family.

Several fishing scenes were taken on Lac la Biche, also scenes of the town, the McDonald Rodeo and the Pilgrimage to Lac Ste. Ann.

The film has been shown in the past few months on TV and in Eastern Canada. It will be coming to Lac la Biche again in the near future.

Weatherwise

LAC LA BICHE — Warm sunny weather has prevailed over the Lac La Biche area for the past couple of weeks with no precipitation until Sept. 30. Conditions for harvesting were ideal and farmers were making full use of the warm weather to combine their fields.

Reports indicate that this area escaped the hard frosts experienced in the southern parts of the province Sept. 1 and 2.

Frank Thompson who ranches in the Owl River area with his home right on the lake shore, reported that his flowers, including several varieties of roses were still blooming, corn on the stalks was unharmed and continuing to fill and the potato tops were still green.

Lionel Vincent, Louis Rudiger Elected Council By Acclamation

Nominations were held Sept. 26 to fill two vacancies on the council and three vacancies on the school board.

The two retiring councillors who have completed three-year terms were F. W. McMillan and Lionel Vincent. Mr. McMillan did not choose to run again.

Lionel Vincent allowed his name to stand for re-election and Louis Rudiger, a new comer to council, allowed his name also to stand. Since there were only two names submitted the two men were elected to three-year terms by acclamation. Four names were submitted for school trustees S. Hamar, E. G. Dobson, Hervey Marchildon and Hector McCormick. All but Mr. McCormick have just completed terms on the board. Mr. McCormick withdrew his name. No election will be held for this position.

Aurora Higueras is only 2 years old, but already coincidence has made her a film actress. Gail Dakin And Stafford Smith Exchange Vows At St. Isidore's PLAMONDON — St. Isidore's Church was the scene of a pretty autumn wedding when Miss Gail Ann Dakin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dakin of Plamondon, became the bride of Mr. Stafford Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Smith of Wandering River.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. J. M. Martineau.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. John Genoud.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floorlength gown —of net and lace over taffeta with a square neckline of sequins and pearls. The long sleeves extended to lily points. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Bill Duperron, wore a dress of blue taffeta and lace. She carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations and wore a crown of white flowers.

Bridesmaids Miss Claudette Gauthier, Miss Judy Luc and Miss Margaret Dakin wore identical dresses of blue acetates and nylon lace with a nylon sheer cumberbund and bow at back. They wore flowered headpieces and carried bouquets of blue and white carnations.

Best men were Mr. Bill Duperron Mr. Roger Gauthier, Mr. Ray Randall and Mr. George Smith.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dakin chose a two-piece dress of winter white with white accessories and white corsage.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Smith wore a black and white dress with white accessories and white corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Pelican Hotel banquet room.

The brides table was decorated with flowers and centred by a three tier wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Smith will reside at Three Hills.

Plamondon Boy Loses Left Eye In Dart Mishap

PLAMONDON— Bernard Plamondon, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Plamondon, lost his left eye while playing with a plastic dart gun.

Because he had no more darts, he tried using a nail and accidentally put his finger on the trigger. The nail, which was in the barrel at the time, flew into his eye and pierced it.

After two weeks of treatment in the General hospital Bernard underwent surgery. His left eye will be replaced by an artificial one.

American Hospital Group Honors Judge N. Buchanan

CHICAGO, Ill. — The Honorable Nelles V. Buchanan, Chief Judge of the District Court of Alberta and president of the Canadian Hospital Association recently received the highest commendation — Honorary Fellowship—of the American College of Hospital Administrators, a professional society with headquarters in Chicago.

The tribute to Judge Buchanan took place at the College's 28th Convocation Ceremony in the Arie Crown Theatre at McCormick Place here before more than 2,500 members and guests.

The presentation was made by Tol Terrell, President of the ACHA and Administrator of the Shannon West Texas Memorial Hospital in San Angelo.

At the same ceremony, the College admitted 579 new nominees and advanced 275 to the status of membership and 94 to the status of fellowship.

Judge Buchanan was one of five distinguished persons to be honored by the College for their contributions to the health and hospital fields here and abroad.

Others to be cited with Judge Buchanan were Mother Anna Dengel, MD, founder of the Society of Catholic Medical Missionaries, Rome, Italy; Frederick T. Hill, MD, Medical Director, Thayer Hospital, Waterville, Maine; Robert W. Johnson, Chairman of the Board, Johnson & Johnson, New Brunswick, New Jersey and Foster G. McGaw, founder and Chairman of the Board, American Hospital Supply Corporation, Evanston, Illinois.

College Regent Max B. Wallace, General Superintendent of the Toronto Western Hospital in Toronto, read the following special citation on Judge Buchanan:

"Chief Judge Buchanan has had a long and distinguished career, both in his chosen profession of law and in the hospital field.

"In his own profession, he has achieved distinction by being named a King's Counsel in 1941 and by being appointed successively as a Judge of the District Court of the District of Northern Alberta in 1952, and, subsequently, as Chief Judge of that court in 1953. For his exceptional achievements, he was awarded an honorary degree from Mount Allison University in 1954.

"Nelles Buchanan was born in Crystal City, Manitoba, on January 23, 1890. He was educated in public and high schools in Regina, Edmonton and Calgary between 1896 and 1908. Following his graduation from the Calgary Normal School, he taught for a number of years before enrolling at the University of Toronto, where he received his degree in arts in 1915.

"In March of that year, he enlisted in the Canadian Field Artillery as a gunner and was discharged four years later as a Major. Nelles Buchanan was to return to this branch of the service 20 years later, when he commanded the 61st Field Battery, Royal Canadian Artillery, during the Second World War.

"Judge Buchanan received his Bachelor of Law degree from the University of Alberta in 1921 and in June of that same year was called to the bar by the Law Society of Alberta. In 1941, he was appointed a King's Counsel and between 1926 and 1952 served as solicitor to the Royal Alexandra Hospital in Edmonton. He also was solicitor to the Alberta Hospital Association from 1938 to 1952. In the latter capacity, Judge Buchanan drafted a bill which incorporated the Associated Hospitals of Alberta, passed by the legislature of the province in 1948.

"Through years of active legal service, he has been closely associated with hospitals. He has been a member of the Archer Memorial Hospital of the United Church of Canada since 1939 and a chairman of that Board since 1944. He was elected to the Board of Trustees of the Alberta Blue Cross Plan in 1951 and has been continuously a member, serving as chairman since 1953. Between 1957 and 1959, he served as president of the Canadian Council of Blue Cross Plans. He also served one double and one triple term as president of the Associated Hospitals of Alberta. In May of 1961 he was elected president of the Canadian Hospital Association, having served as vice-president in 1959 and 1960.

"Never content to be just an 'office holder' in any of the many positions he has held, professional and voluntary, Judge Buchanan has distinguished himself by his dedicated interest, wholehearted loyalty and aggressive energy, all directed toward resolving the many significant health problems at hand.

"For his many years of enthusiastic effort toward the improvement of hospital care in Canada, the American College of Hospital Administrators is privileged to extend to Chief Judge Nelles V. Buchanan its highest commendation, Honorary Fellowship."

Board Official Seeks Alternate Source Of Energy

An official of Alberta's Oil and Gas Conservation Board, D. R Craig, has suggested there should be more effort to find alternate sources of energy because the province's recoverable reserves of oil and gas are showing a tendency to level off.

Mr. Craig told a technical meeting of the Engineering Institute of Canada, the natural gas life index has declined from 160 years in the middle 1950's to a current value of 66 years. It is expected to decline to 40 years by 1965 and remain constant after that.

The life index is the number of years an oil or gas reserve can last at the current rate of production.

The life index for crude oil shows a steady decline from about 30 years in 1950 to its current value of 19 years. A continued slow downward trend is expected, reaching a value of about 16 years by 1970.

Alberta Government To Proceed With Program For Handicapped

Premier Manning announced recently the Alberta government has decided to go ahead with its program for multiple handicapped children on a decentralized basis. Construction on the first hospital-school will start in Edmonton next year at the latest.

The premier said this is a change from the government's previous decision to use the old Royal Alexandra Hospital building in Edmonton for the children's hospital.

The proposed new unit will be in the form of a chronic hospital, will accommodate 100 children and will cost about one million dollars. It will be followed by a similar one in Calgary and smaller units in other key centres during the next five to seven years.

Premier Manning said an advisory committee made up of representatives from the health and education departments and private organizations will parucipate in the screening and selection of cases.

W. I. Receives Report From Mrs. J. Bielish On C. E. C.

LAC LA BICHE — The September meeting of the Woman's Institute was held in the Library room in the Town Hall, September 18 with 12 ladies present. Mrs. Marshall Hamar, Presided.

A report given by the Treasurer showed the club to be in good shape financially. The library report was presented by Mrs. W. E. Coast. She reported on the moving of the library from its temporary quarters in the School Division warehouse to the room in the Town Hall set aside for the library. The many books were catalogued for moving and Mrs. Coast paid tribute to the group of ladies, assisted by some of the younger girls, who carried out this tremendous task. Mrs. Coast also reported that the insurance on the books was reviewed and additional insurance obtained.

Volunteers for the standing committees for the ensuing year were: Home Economics, Mrs. S. Hamar; Citizenship, Mrs. E. Woynarowich; Social Services, Mrs. Marshall Hamar; Health, Mrs. J. Booker; Education, Mrs. W. E. Coast.

After discussion a motion was passed that the University Mixed Chorus be asked to perform in Lac la Biche in February. This time the entire chorus of some one hundred voices will be invited. Billeting would be provided. Because the smaller chorus which sang here a couple of years ago was enjoyed so much by the townspeople, it was felt by the ladies that no difficulty would be encountered in billeting the larger group.

After the business session, Mrs. W. E. Coast gave an interesting report of the District Conference held in Boyle in July, as follows:

"The Conference opened with O Canada and the Creed with Mrs. F. C. Boulton of Abee in the chair. The Address of Welcome was given by Mrs. Beckworth of Boyle.

Complimentary corsages were presented to Mrs. S. E. Thorne, prov. vice-pres. of Sask.; Mrs. Boulton, Mrs. Prather of Abee; and to the oldest WI member present, Mrs. M. Brown.

Mrs. J. Booker, LLB gave the reply to the speech of welcome. Mrs. Thorne reminded us that new conveners had to be elected. The meeting adjourned for lunch.

Business was resumed at 1:30 with a financial statement from Mrs. Boulton, who had finished her term 18 cents in the hole. She pointed out that at the last constituency conference, it had been voted to increase the constituency dues from 50 cents to 75 cents a member, but that every group had sent the usual 50 cents and she had found herself short of funds. She suggested that the missing 25 cents should be paid immediately, so that the new convener when elected would have some money to start the term.

Delegates reports were read and adopted, followed by reports of standing committee conveners.

After a short break, Mrs. M. Thompson of Boyle read a verse, "Meaning of Life," which told of the good and bad to be found in the raising of first a son and then a daughter, the final conclusion seeming to be that it was more or less worth it in the end.

There was no business arising from the minutes, but Mrs. Loy asked for some information about the percentage of profit given to the W.I. from the sale of magazines in the districts where they had accepted the offer. Nothing definite was known by those present and Mrs. Thorne reminded us that it had been suggested that we be very careful about lending the good name of the W.I. to any of these projects without careful inquiries being made first.

We were all most happy to see our next speaker, Mrs. J. Bielish, Warspite, who was to report on the Canadian Education Conference, which she had attended in Montreal. Numerous topics relating to education had been studied in groups and in committees. She said she had never been to a conference which was so admirably organized. There were over 2000 people there and all were kept busy. The delegates were even given talks and lectures while they ate lunch from trays and not a minute was wasted.

Reports of the committees were compiled rapidly Mrs. Bielish said, and at the end the following results were reported.

It was decided that the childs education was being more and more taken out of the hands of the parents and turned over to the teachers, that it was difficult for parents to see teachers to ask about things that worried or annoyed them. It was recommended that advisory committees be set up to bring about a closer liaison between parents and the school.

It was also suggested that more publicity be given to the Universities, their aims, objects and methods. Too few people knew what to expect when they applied for entrance to a university, or how to measure up to what was expected of them when they were accepted.

Mrs. Bielish said that the tension between the two dominant races and religions of Canada were plainly felt by everyone and a plea was made for a united front across the Dominion in education, because standards and achievements varied so greatly from province to province.

This conference was sponsored by seventy five National organizations across Canada and she was very proud to have been a part of it and hoped much good would come of it and that it would lead to more of the same.

Miss Bencharsky gave a vocal solo and was soundly applauded.

Mrs. Kozdroski also gave copies of a report to each delegate.

New standing Committee conveners were elected as follows: Citizenship, Mrs. H. Senetza, Lac la Biche; Health, Mrs. J. Alexander, Abee; Home Ec., Mrs. H. Lov, Boyle; United Nations, Mrs. S. Jolliffe, Newbrook; Education, Mrs. Eric Brown, Meanook; Handicraft, Mrs. J. Le Measurier, Meanook; Social Service, Mrs. T. Mapp, Amber Valley; Agric and Industry, Mrs. A. Burger, Newbrook.

The election of a Constituency Convener was the next item of business, with the honor going to Mary Hamar.

Mrs. Boulton, as retiring convener thanked all the members for their support during her term in office, for the pleasant visits with the various branches, and especially thanked her secretary, Mrs. Prather.

Collections were taken for gifts for Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Boulton and pennies for Friendship.

Mrs. Thorne brought greetings from Mrs. M. G. Roberts, Provincial president, Drumheller, who was unable to attend, due to a death in the family.

Mrs. Thorne suggested that all secretaries keep a list pasted in the cover of the minute book, containing the names of the officers, Provincial and local and also of constituency committee conveners so that any member could get them at any time.

Gleanings from Mrs. Thorne.

Publicize your projects, let the community know what WI is doing.

Try to get new branches and new members. Some fifty five old branches about the world are being asked to do more all the time.

Membership cards are available to all. Use transfer cards, they hold members. WI should have a publicity convener.

Home and Country have lots of obituary notices but never a single birth notice, surely WI members still have babies.

Small size clothes are needed for overseas, Unitarian Service Committee.

Bring out the talents of all members.

Next convention is to elect several new officers so do send delegates.

The Handicraft Award was taker home by Abee, with a total of 134 points, Newbrook had 120, Meanook 27, Boyle 7, and Amber Valley 4 points.

Mrs. Kirk won the Individual award with 38 points and accepted the tray for Abee.

A glass flower bowl was presented to Mrs. Boulton, for which she expressed thanks. Lunch concluded a busy and interesting day.

In addition to organizations, any individual may submit the name of a person he thinks should be considered, but in so doing must present a typewritten copy listing the history of that persons' activities in sport,

Those honored will receive an illuminated scroll at a special function sometimes next year, and will also have their pictures displayed in the Hall of Fame, which is to be housed in the new multi-purpose sports building to be erected on the Exhibition Grounds.

Three Couples Turn In Identical Scores At Redwater Golf Tourney

On Sunday, Sept. 23 a mixed two-ball foursome golf tournament was held on the Redwater Golf Course. Thirty-two eager golfers took advantage of the perfect golfing weather to show how much their golfing had improved after a busy golfing summer. It was rather difficult to determine a winner with three couples turning in identical scores in hopes of walking off with the honors. They were Mrs. Vivian Bryant and Rudy Roloff, Mrs. M. Manchuk and Mike Petruk, Mrs. Eileen Petruk and Pete Manchuk, all with a low net score of 52.

Two couples turned in a par 3 score for Low Score on No. 3 hole. They were Mrs. Ann Smith and Mike Kapach and Mrs. Pat MacKay and Dick Erb. High Score of 10 on No. 4 hole was turned in by Mrs. M. Manchuk and Mike Petruk and Mrs. Pat MacKay and Dick Erb.

The mixed two-ball foursome has been a popular feature in the golfing schedule this year and although all proclaim that the game's the thing competition is definitely becoming keener as golfers feel that the end of the season is drawing nearer.

The sixth Western Canadian Farm Safety Conference will be held at the Corona Hotel, Edmonton on Feb. 12-14, 1963.

THE Homemaker

By B. M. McCUTCHEON, District Home Economist, Westlock

New homemakers and even the not so old sometimes find directions in recipes a little confusing. For example, directions for beating eggs slightly, or well, may be a major point in determining the success or failure of a recipe. But how can you know when an egg is slightly beaten or well beaten? Well, to help us out with this problem, the Poultry Products Institute offers some simple explanations:

B. McCutcheon

First, eggs slightly beaten, means they are beaten just enough to mix whites and yolks, but still leave the mixture streaky. This is usually done with a fork. Slightly beaten eggs are used for scrambled eggs, French omelets, baked custards and some sauces, cakes and cookies.

Eggs well beaten are whole eggs or a single egg beaten until light and frothy and with the white and yolk thoroughly blended. Some cake and cookies recipes call for well beaten whole eggs.

Egg yolk well beaten means the yolk is beaten by rotary or electric beater until thick and much lighter in color. Yolks must be well beaten for sponge cakes, since the air incorporated in the yolks helps make the cake light.

Egg whites beaten stiff means that the egg whites are beaten until they stand in peaks when the beater is withdrawn. However, the peaks drop over slightly and the surface is still moist and glossy. A rotary, electric beater, flat whisk or fork may be used. Angel cakes call for stiffly beaten egg whites.

Egg whites beaten very stiff means the whites are beaten until the peaks stand upright without drooping when the beater is removed and the surface should look dry and not glossy. Chiffon cakes require very stiffly beaten egg whites.

Here is a handy list of equivalent substitutions, which is taken from our publication entitled "Tips On Food Preparation," which is available to you on request:

1 tablespoon flour, ½ tablespoon cornstarch; 1 cup cake flour, 1 cup hard wheat or all-purpose flour minus two tablespoons; 1 cup corn syrup, 1 cup sugar plus ¼ cup liquid when used to replace one-half of the sugar; 1 cup honey, 1 to 1¼ cups of sugar plus ¼ cup of liquid; 1 ounce chocolate, 3 to 4 tablespoons cocoa plus ½ tablespoon fat; 1 cup butter, ⅞ to 1 cup shortening, ⅞ cup lard or ⅞ cup rendered fat; 1 cup coffee cream (20 per cent), 3 tablespoons butter plus about ⅞ cup milk; 1 cup heavy cream (40 per cent), ⅓ cup butter plus about ¾ cup milk; 1 cup whole milk, ½ cup evaporated milk plus ½ cup water, 1 cup skim milk plus 2 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons (approximately) dry whole powder plus 1 cup water or 6 tablespoons (approximately) dry skim milk powder plus 1 cup water plus 2 tablespoons butter; 1 cup sour milk, 1 cup sweet milk and 1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice.

N.B.: Always sift white flour once before measuring. Recipes are written on this basis.

Willey Killers Sentenced To Hang

Raymond Workman and William Huculak have been sentenced to hang on January 9 for the alleged murder of golf pro Frank Willey. They will appeal the decision.

Workman and William Huculak were charged with capital murder after Willey disappeared.

At the trial in Edmonton late last month, a householder who lives across the lane from the house in which Willey is alleged to have been slain, Mrs. Jeanette Gilardeau, testified that she saw two white cars and two men at the house about 9:45 p.m. on April 19. Willey is believed to have been murdered on or around April 19. She said one of the men did not seem to know how to drive because his car backed up very fast. She could not identify the men. Workman's U-drive Pontiac was white and Willey's Oldsmobile was a light brown color.

A second witness gave evidence that Mr. Workman planned to marry Willey's wife. The witness, Mrs. Irene Plawiuk, also gave evidence in Supreme Court about finding Workman and Mrs. Willey in bed together.

It was also brought to the attention of the court that Mr. Workman asked lawyer Frank Palowski if a person could sue for divorce and most of the estate of the husband. According to Mr. Shortreed, when Palowski advised Workman that the possibility was remote Workman said, "We'll have to kill him," or words to that affect.
